Introduction

Certified in Data Centre Professional

The GSDC Data Centre Certification validates your practical understanding of how modern data centres are planned, managed, and maintained to meet today's critical IT demands.

This certification in data centre operations equips professionals with the knowledge required to handle infrastructure reliability, power and cooling efficiency, risk management, and security.

The Data Centre certificate provides access to implementation-ready templates, checklists, and reference materials that enhance on-the-job performance.

If you're looking to become a certified Data Centre Professional, this credential ensures you're prepared to work with enterprise-grade data centre environments efficiently and securely.

Learning Objective

- Maximize uptime via proactive risk management
- Show ability to apply power and cooling strategies
- Use checklists/templates for DC optimization
- Apply structured maintenance and monitoring approaches
- Assess infrastructure efficiency and availability risks
- Learn from practical data centre operations cases
- Validate compliance readiness in facility management
- Strengthen your profile with real-world knowledge

Certified Learning & Development Professional CLDP
 I took the certification course "Certified Learning & Development Professional CLDP" approved by the GSDC - Global Skill Development Council. So grateful to the professional team at the GSDC for this enlightening opportunity; namely, Ruguzeno, for her dedication, responsiveness, and constant support throughout this learning journey. And very special thanks to the amazing trainer and coach Deepak Sharma for the great weekly live sessions which I believe are the highlight of this certification programme. His knowledge, expertise, and outstanding skills have made the course very insightful, engaging, and enjoyable!
